This AC-130U Spooky Gunship aircraft paper model is actually requested by many paper model builders couple years ago until now. Also the requests for a new livery for C-130 Hercules keep coming to me, so why not I take the challenge? I thought it was an easy task to re-color this model plane, but apparently it was not, as usual. I found out I had to re-model the vertical stabilizer and all the engines, I was not satisfy with the old ones. That's not all, I also remove all glue tabs and made separate inner glue tabs, so the assembled model will have smoother profile. First time I know this gunship was from a local aviation magazine, but that was not amazed me yet until I saw it in Transformers the movie (TF1) and play as a Spectre gunner role in Call of Duty : Modern Warfare and in later Modern Warfare 3. As a bonus I added a display stand in this template, the scale is still the same, 1:100.
